Justice Iqbal Ansari is a distinguished jurist and former Chief Justice of the Patna High Court, widely respected for his integrity, constitutional vision, and steadfast commitment to the rule of law. He served with distinction across various High Courts, delivering significant judgments in constitutional, civil, criminal, and service law.

His tenure as Chief Justice combined judicial excellence with strong administrative leadership. He introduced reforms to improve case management, enhance transparency, and strengthen access to justice - measures that reinforced institutional efficiency and public confidence.

After retiring from the bench, Justice Ansari was appointed Chairman of the Punjab Human Rights Commission, where he advanced human rights protections, promoted accountability of public authorities, and strengthened awareness of civil liberties. His approach has been firm in principle yet humane in application.

As he assumes office as President of IMPAR, he brings profound legal expertise, rich institutional experience, and a lifelong dedication to justice and good governance. We are confident that under his leadership, IMPAR will advance its reform agenda, build a vibrant community, and contribute meaningfully to the nation's growth.

Message From
The President

The weaker sections in India, suffer with a multitude of problems, from low access to education and jobs, to peripheral share in government schemes and social welfare programs, and marginal participation in the new opportunity areas such as entrepreneurships and startups to the issues of social safety and insecurity. Muslims in India @200 million, constitute roughly 15% of the population, but the share in jobs, businesses, political, social and economic spheres is abysmally low @3%, across board. This has been cause of serious concerns for a long time. Concerted efforts were made in the past to bring about a positive change, but situation remains largely unchanged. Though in recent years, there is noticeable progress of the Minorities, and SC and ST and OBCs on various social and economic parameters, but, its much below the national average. IMPAR aims to function as the apex national forum for research and advocacy, strategic planning, coordinated actions, and education and economic support programs, concerning Indian Muslims and other weaker sections to make a meaningful difference to the society and the nation. It is now working on broad long term goals of community reforms, leadership programs, entrepreneurship development, and social, political and economic empowerment. IMPAR is committed to bring about a change by proactive policy and media engagements, initiating positive social actions and community reforms, cultivating youth and women leaderships and facilitating access to modern education, business and economic opportunities. The challenge is too big before us, but we have taken the first step and as Mahatma Gandhi said "be the change that you wish to see around", IMPAR has made the right beginning. And I am confident that IMPAR will be able to create good impact on the ground, with the support of all the concerned citizens and people of Indian origin worldwide. Look forward to your support and cooperation in making a little positive change to the situation of Indian Muslims and all other weaker communities. Join IMPAR. Together we make the difference.

Justice Iqbal Ansari

President IMPAR

VISION :

To empower the Indian Muslim community to contribute to the society and the nation

MISSION :

To undertake proactive policy and media engagement, starting positive social actions and community reforms, cultivating youth and women leaderships, and facilitating access to modern education, business, and economic opportunities, thus building a vibrant community and a powerful nation.

IMPAR WORKING AGENDA

- Effective media representation and constructive engagement for positive agenda and narratives
- Analysing the social, political and economic challenges and preparing strategies by internal Working Groups.
- Constituting Expert Groups to leveraging Govt programs and schemes.
- Engaging with the Central and State Governments and all the key Government Institutions.
- Reaching out to top corporate for CSR, jobs and skilling support.
- Organising series of meetings, expert lectures and round tables with thought leaders.
- Holding dialogues with leaderships of all political parties, media and corporate houses.
- To create new NGOs and startups at the district levels to access opportunities
- Organising reward, recognition and felicitation function for outstanding community work.Organising social actions, including cleaning and greening drives, and community service at public places.
- Leadership Development of Women and Youth and facilitating them to effective social and economic roles.

Background:

Widening the educational and economic opportunities in a cost-effective manner for its citizens is a national goal. We can only achieve positive changes for the community through internal reforms, approached with a modern outlook and increased positive social actions. And through the development of a favourable social and political environment, the community should be able to have greater access to educational and economic opportunities. Herein lies the need for the creation of a forum for research, monitoring, dialogue, coordination, engagement and data based policy advocacy and opportunity access programs for the Muslims and weaker sections of the society.

IMPAR is the result of this long-felt need. It aims to work as the apex level national body for research and advocacy, strategic planning, coordinated actions, and as development catalyst for Indian Muslim community and other weaker sections of the society. IMPAR has delivered on all key challenges since its formation, and hopes to further accelerate its pace of delivery and performance.

The challenges before us are many. We have taken the first step. And as Mahatma Gandhi said, "You must be the change that you wish to see around". I am confident that IMPAR over the years will develop into a powerful institution to steer the community towards the path of progress and reforms, and help to usher in an era of peace and prosperity across our country. IMPAR needs your support in making a meaningful difference to the community's social, political and economic situation and its engagement with the society and the nation.

Objectives:

- Conducting research and collecting data on social, economic, and educational status and trends in the light of various Government decisions and social, economic, and policy developments, including participation in flagship programs, and present the same to the Government, various groups, and the Media.
- Analyzing social, political, economic, and policy environment and media coverage, which have a direct and indirect impact on the well-being of the community, including its security, image and perceptions, and long-term implications; and preparing responses to be taken up with the media, social, and political spectrum, and the Government.
- Dialogue with the Central and State Governments, media, political parties, corporate houses, and social and intellectual groups for sensitization and creating a better understanding of issues concerning the community. Building a database of professionals in various fields such as media, law, health, education, business, politics, legislatures, and so on.
- Organize consultation meetings, seminars, discussions, leadership development programs and reward and recognition functions for the performers and achievers and various bodies, think tanks, development organizations, media houses, and social and political leaderships, who extend support to create better understanding and make difference to community's engagement with the society and the nation.
- Putting before the political parties the concerns of the community, and social, economic and development agenda; seeking their support and commitments; and accordingly, monitoring whether the same has been included in the manifestoes and subsequently implemented.
- Educating youth and inculcating among them rational and scientific thinking, broad social and national ethos and shared values, and greater respect for the laws and institutions, and promoting social work and community service culture.

As Ramazan falls during lockdown, the government has prepared 14 point guidelines with the help of Indian Muslim for India First (IMPAR) to control the pandemic in an efficient way. In the month of Ramazan Muslims worship more than in any other month. They have Taraweeh, (special prayers) after Isha prayer. IMPAR set guidelines keeping the prayers and worship intact in Ramazan, how to pay zakat (charity) without leaving the homes and spending the month of Ramazan in the best possible way.

IMPAR is a platform that comprises of prominent Muslim personalities. These guidelines have been prepared with the help of 15 Muslim scholars and Imams (sermonizers)
